

View Group: Chiapas Coalition [Criminal Extremist G]

Group Info

Classification Law EnforcementName Chiapas CoalitionType Criminal Extremist GNotes Group dedicated to overthrow of Mexican government, claiming government abuse of workers. Has held demonstrations in Denver at Mexican Embassy and at political functions.

Areas

Area
United States
Mexico

Information represents Non-Criminal Identification

Last Modified: 04/25/2000 16:10:20

Reference Documents:

Associated Locations

Association	Location	Info Date	Comments
Frequents	1522 Lafayette Street Denver, CO 303-832-6071	02/02/2000	Associated with Chiapas Coalition.
Headquartered	218 S Broadway Denver, CO	04/25/2000	Kerry Appel, head of the Chiapas Coalition, operates The Human Bean Company at his location. Coffee House,

Associated Subjects

Association	Subject	Info Date	Comments
Member	Anthony, Antonia	04/17/2000	Active protestor with Chiapas Coalition. Also demonstrated in Washington, DC during protests against the International Monetary Fund and World Bank meetings. Blames the global financial policies are responsible for the uprisings in Chiapas, Mexico.
Member	Appel, Kerry	01/05/2000
Member	Delacruz, Mark	09/17/1999
Member	Espinosa,	05/31/2000

Luis
Member	[REDACTED]	01/19/2000
Member	[REDACTED]	02/02/2000	Listed as contact of Chiapas Coalition.
Associated	Short, Danielle E	02/02/2000	Phone number for subject listed as contact number for Luis Espinosa, a contact for Chiapas Coalition.
Member	Thompson, Mark	09/17/1999	One of several people who stormed luncheon where Governor Owens was speaking.
Member	[REDACTED]	09/17/1999	One of several members who stormed luncheon where Governor Owens was speaking.

Printed by Kathleen Miklich

000401